

Katherine M. Hathaway Clark

March 10, 1950 - May 22, 2017

Exeter – Katherine M. (Hathaway) Clark, 67, of Exeter, passed away peacefully on Monday, May 22, 2017 at the Exeter Hospital with loving family at her bedside.

She was born on March 10, 1950 in Portsmouth, a daughter of Kala (Curtis) Heron of Portsmouth and the late Samuel T. Hathaway.

Katherine lived in a number of locations before returning to the New Hampshire Seacoast from Florida in 2008. She lived a simple life and was a hard working woman. She enjoyed using her people skills at her job at the Xtra Mart in Exeter where she built many friendships. Katherine also enjoyed handcrafts and was very skilled at knitting, crocheting, and sewing. She had crafted many pieces that were shared with her family and friends. Katherine loved to read and watch movies but above all else she loved her family and her grandchildren brought her the greatest joy.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by her daughters, Kimberly Lucas and her husband Lance of Amherst, MA, Jennifer Ban and her husband Michael of Henniker and Wendy Outland and her husband John of Palm Bay, FL. She also leaves her brothers, Michael Hathaway and his wife Heidi of Manhattan, KS and Ed Hathaway and his wife Ruth of Greensboro, NC; her sisters, Lynn Quigley and her husband Larry of McKinney, TX and Rebecca Myers of Dover and her 11 grandchildren.

All services will be private. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, 2 Commerce Dr., Suite 110, Bedford, NH 03110.

“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loving daughter, mother, grandmother and friend. We worked side by side at Xtra Mart and became very close friends. I loved "Kathy" very much. She was an extremely private person and I was fortunate enough to be one of the few she let get close. I am sorry we were unable to remain close once our working relationship ended. One often thinks there is always a tomorrow to call, send a note or stop by. I missed out on an opportunity to say goodbye to a genuinely loving, giving and caring friend. May she hear me now.....I will miss you dearly Kathy....you will be forever in my heart.
Fondly, Carole Brinkman & Family
