

Kathleen R. Ullrich

April 10, 1947 - August 27, 2018

North Hampton- Kathleen Ullrich of North Hampton passed away at her daughter's home in Dedham, MA, on August 27, 2018, after a brief battle with pancreatic cancer. She was 71.

Born April 10, 1947 in Buffalo, NY, she graduated from Walt Whitman High School in Bethesda, MD and the University of Maryland College Park, where she studied history and English.

Kathy will be missed by all for her loving, compassionate, and giving nature. In short, she was a true nurturer. A devoted and deeply caring mother, she raised four children, while also working for many years as a pre-school teacher, most recently at the Exeter Day School, in Exeter. At various points she also worked in the arenas of human resources and social services.

She also enjoyed sailing, her rescue dogs, and all things related to nature- including wildlife, the ocean, and horticulture. Whether in a personal or professional capacity, she instilled in children under her care respect and appreciation for all creatures great and small. She also had a special penchant for rescuing orphaned and injured wildlife. And wherever she lived, her green thumb was hard at work maintaining exceptional landscapes, plantings and gardens.

Later on in life, her interest in yoga was reignited. It became her passion and highlighted how she sought to nurture everyone and everything in her life. She helped found the Yoga Life Institute in Exeter, NH, and was certified by the Yoga Alliance as E-RYT 500 and YACEP. She taught classes at numerous locations across the Seacoast area, as well as volunteering her time to teach yoga for those with cancer.

She is survived by her partner, Rex Gallagher of Hampton, four children, Christina Ullrich and husband Wayne Sentman of Dedham, MA, Robert Ullrich and wife Zoey Ullrich of Dover, Bradley Ullrich of Nashua, Weston Ullrich and wife Vanessa Holzer of Waldkirch Germany, her grandchildren, Abbey (age 7) and Cooper (age 3) Ullrich, and her beloved Jack Russell Terrier, Daisy. An over thirty-year inhabitant of the Seacoast area, had many dear friends in the area as well. The light and love she carried will live on in all those she leaves behind.

Dear Rex, I am so, so sorry to hear of the passing of Kathy. I have been and actually still am at a loss for words. Please know how heartbroken I am to hear this news and to also know the unbearable pain you and the family are going through at this time and the days ahead.

I always kept Kathy in my thoughts and prayers since the first day I met her. I felt like we instantly bonded...not sure if it was because of the love we both had for Brad, the cancer bond, our passion for sailing or all of those....and we continued that bond even after I spilled my coffee all over her, her bed, paperwork, books etc. at the hospital. 🙏♀ I was horrified but she just kept telling me it was ok. ❤️ I made it a point and always enjoyed checking in with her weekly to see how she was doing and feeling and to see if there was anything I could do to help especially with Daisy. It was very difficult to accept when her replies stopped when she became very ill weeks before she passed.

From the first day I met you and Kathy, I was blown away by the love you both had for each other...the love and support you provided Kathy took my breath away. You were there with her and for her every step of the way and never left her side. I can only hope and be blessed that someday I will find someone who loves me as much as you loved Kathy.

My sincere condolences.

*All my love,
Michelle*
