

Kathleen Ann Wise

November 18, 1950 - January 12, 2020

Hampton Beach – Kathleen Ann Burbine-Wise, 69, of Hampton Beach and formerly of Nashua, passed away peacefully on January 12, 2020 at Clipper Harbor of Portsmouth where she had been living due to failing health. She was born in Nashua on November 18, 1950, a daughter of the late Henry D. and Helen L. (Paine) Burbine.

Kathi was raised in Hampton and graduated from Winnacunnet High School with the Class of 1968. She went on to the Boston Institute of Art and then pursued her career in advertising. Kathi worked for the Hampton Union and the Beachcomber weekly publications as well as working in sales with her mother and father.

Kathi was vibrant and outgoing with an uncanny sense of humor. Her spirit was bright and energetic with an extraordinary zest for life. She loved to laugh and joke and there was never a dull moment when one was around her. She was a faithful lady, and a devout catholic who dedicated herself to God and prayer and loved her church, St. Patrick's, of Nashua. She had a passion for the arts with an amazing artistic ability especially when it came to drawing or sketching. Her talent had allowed her to design logos for some local business on the seacoast.

Surviving family members include her daughter, Angela G. Wise of Nashua and her brothers, David Burbine and his wife, Loris of Seabrook, James Burbine of Nashua and Ray Burbine and his wife Sheila of Clearwater, FL as well as several nieces and nephews. She will be greatly missed by all who loved her.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her brothers, Robert Moreau and Henry (Skip) Burbine.

“ *To all of the Burbine family...
I sure wish I could come to Kathy's service. Living 4 hours north limits my ability to get home. I KNOW Kathy is HOME with her beloveds there and that we will all catch up soon enough. I'm so glad that she and I reconnected after Bill's passing. God be with you all and Angela, I pray for you and will always. OXOXOX ❤️*
