

Kevin Paul Beal Sr.

October 3, 1959 - May 6, 2023

Seabrook - Kevin P. Beal, Sr., 63, a longtime resident of Seabrook passed away peacefully on Saturday May 6, 2023, at Portsmouth Regional Hospital surrounded by his family. He was born in Newburyport, MA on October 3, 1959, a son of Marie (Lennox) Beal of Seabrook and the late Morris Beal. He was a loving and devoted father to his two sons, Kevin Beal Jr., and Joe Beal.

Kevin was born and raised in New England with homes in Seabrook and Amesbury, MA. He enlisted in the Army shortly after high school and proudly and honorably served his country for 6 years as an MP and Tank Operator, mostly deployed in Germany.

He loved raising his sons, teaching them to stand on their own with a drive for competition and sports. Kevin spent many hours teaching them to play baseball, football and most importantly, how to fish. Fishing was Kevin's most valued pastime, which he loved to do with his boys and his granddaughters. To say he was an avid fisherman is an understatement, he loved all types of fishing and chasing largemouth bass by land or by boat was indeed his favorite.

Kevin was able to explore some key fishing destinations during his life, including a trip with his two sons to Alaska for a week chasing Salmon. The trip was filled with beautiful scenery, caribou fighting for territory, many bald eagles and most importantly all the pink salmon they could catch.

Left to cherish Kevin's memory are his mother, Marie Beal of Seabrook, his sons; Kevin Beal and Joe Beal, his siblings; Morris Beal Jr, William Beal, Anne Marie Nadeau, and Melissa Heitz, his three grandchildren; December Beal, Terra Beal and Lucas Beal as well as several extended family members and close friends. He will be sadly missed by all those who knew and loved him.

A graveside service with United States Army honors, will be held at 2 PM on Friday, May 12, 2023, at St. Mary's Cemetery on Storey Ave. in Newburyport.

“ Cuz, we haven't spent much time in the last 30 + years but I do remember being a young teenager looking up to you as I was 5 years your junior and we shared the same middle name as well as initials KPB. You came to my 21st birthday party and schooled me in hoop 🏀 You were there when my dad passed away and told me to value what I had cause someday it wouldn't be there. You had great advice and you will be thought of and missed. Rest in peace Cuz “ OMGOODNESS Last time I saw Kevin was actually about 18 years ago, and he was over there fishing on I believe it's called Tide River, you can see it when your heading South on 95, but he was over on the back side... I was fishing with my ex. I can't even remember how long I have known Kevin, but we had some good laughs. My prayers go out to his family... I am so sorry for your loss, and I'm pretty sure Kevin is catching some big ones up in Heaven, I will see you when I get there my friend, God Bless
