“ I feel so sad about Kim's passing. She was right between my kids age-wise. It really hits home. My wife, who is a nurse was one of the first people to the crash site. We live just down the street and never expected something like that on a quiet Saturday.

I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I met Kim a couple of times in town while on duty. You could tell she was raised right. Morals, sincere, and just a very nice honest person. When I heard of the accident it was sad news that it was her who was in the accident and now I find that she has passed. Society has lost a hard working sincere person but Heaven has gained an angel.

“ To Cathy, Richard, Michael and all extended family members and friends: The memorial service was just beautiful and such a fitting tribute to Kim. Words can't express the sorrow I feel for you, but with it comes the knowledge that you will forever keep her in your hearts while she watches over you until you meet again. I picture her laughing, dancing and singing with Justin while they wait to be with you in forty years or so. Take comfort in all the love going out to you. Thoughts and prayers to each of you.

“ Farewell my friend
It's time for me to let you go
Your friendship was a blessing
And I will miss you so
We Shared so many secrets
You brightened up my days
You brought me so much happiness
With your kind and loving ways
You lifted up my spirits
When I was feeling blue
No matter what was happening
You knew just what to do
We ran between the raindrops
And walked beneath the sun
Ran barefoot in the summertime
And oh, we had such fun
NASCAR and up all night by the fire
Through all the ups and downs of life
The good times and the sad
The best friend I ever had
God is here to take you home
Now you and I must part
I love you and forever
You will live within my heart.

“ I didn't know Kimberly but I was passing by as the accident occurred. I stopped and got out and stayed until everything got cleared out. I prayed every single day that she would be okay, it's crazy how someone you didn't even know can affect you so much. She's now at peace and is in a better place where pain can't affect her anymore. So sorry to the family of Kimberly, god bless you all.
