“ I met Russ as Mr. MacDonald, my automotive mechanics teacher in 1974. He helped the class do a ring job on his corvette- I can't believe he even let us touch it! Our paths crossed many times over the years as our kids grew up together in town. Susan, Bob and Sandra, I am so sorry for your loss. He was truly a special soul.

“ Brother of my dearest friend, Joyce, there are so many memories from years back. But one of my favorites is of Russ and I dancing in their parent's living room. At the end of the dance Russ dipped me and then just let me go--flat on the floor. We all laughed to much. It was typical of the kind of humor, practical jokes, and love of life Russ always had. Always a twinkle in the eyes and a smile. Russ, you will be missed by so many. Sending love to everyone in the family. Wish this candle was a firecracker being set off by him.

“ Was so lucky to know Russ for many years, but my favorite memories are of a sailing trip we took in the Grenadines with Russ, Sue , Helen, Wayne, Peter and me. First Mate Russ kept the boat afloat with his sailing knowledge, his constant jokes and general good humor, and the occasional expletive when things went scarily wrong. His wry smile and twinkling eyes always made him a good dinner party companion, and one could all learn the many ways there are of how to blow things up. A great father to Bob and Sandra, wonderful husband to Sue, and good friend to us all. We will miss him dearly. Our love and condolences to the family. Peter and Cindy McArdle

Russ!! Gosh...I have so many memories of you....coming to the house for supper, giving me rides in your Corvette, you and my dad involved in Gad Mac Construction!!! I can not believe you are gone!!! Know that I hug you, love you, and wished my Gadwah family could have been more in touch with you after you and my dad had that business together. You were a significant part of my teen age life, back in the day. May God bless you and hold you close and know that you will be missed by so many whose lives you touched. Xxxoo
