

Laurance E. Anderson Sr.

April 11, 1939 - July 3, 2018

Seabrook— Laurance E. “Andy” Anderson Sr., 79, of Seabrook, died Tuesday, July 3, 2018, at home of natural causes.

Andy was born April 11, 1939 in Kensington, NH the youngest child of the late William A. Anderson and the late Mary Ellen (Rose) Anderson.

He was the beloved husband of Brenda J. (Colby) Anderson who preceded him in death, after 59-years of marriage in 2017. Andy lived with his wife and raised his family in the communities of Salisbury and South Hampton, before he and his wife moved to Seabrook.

He was the founder and a co-owner of A.M. – P.M. Janitorial Sales & Service, a commercial cleaning company he and his wife began in 1970. Prior to that he served the local community as a police officer for the Salisbury Police Department and was employed by Sun Ray Bakery in Methuen, MA as a sales and delivery person.

Andy was a devoted and faithful member of the Amesbury Congregation of Jehovah’s Witnesses in Newburyport. His faith was the cornerstone of his life, a result from his decision, as a younger man, to seek the wisdom of Jehovah God through a study of the bible. He spent countless hours sharing the bible’s transformative message with others, and credits the application of scriptural principles the determining factor in his life's success.

Andy was loved deeply, respected widely, and was a reassuring presence during times of struggle. He thrived in hard work, had a generous heart and was resolute in his responsibility toward his wife and family. He loved vintage cars, motorcycles, fishing, camping and a round of golf with his sons. He was joyful when his home overflowed with his children, children's-children and the little feet of the next generation. He will be sadly missed.

Andy is survived by his six children, Laurance Anderson Jr. and wife Karen of Hampton Falls, Jeffrey Anderson and wife Cheryl of Seabrook, Kimberely DePiero of Amesbury, Mark Anderson and wife Ellen of Wrentham, MA, Douglas Anderson and wife Michelle of Seabrook and William Anderson and wife Donna of Hampton; his 12-grandchildren, Kristie (Anderson) Carrigan, Heidi (Anderson) Trafton, Mallory (Anderson) Tonner, Heather Anderson, Maggie (DePiero) McGrady, Colby Anderson, Shelby Anderson, Jack Anderson, Benjamin Anderson, Bryan Anderson, Ashley (Anderson) Cunningham, Shane Anderson; his great-grandchildren, Alexander Carrigan, Avery Carrigan, Liam Trafton, Grace Trafton, Leah Tonner, Foster Anderson, Hudson Anderson Cunningham and Arlo Cunningham; his brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law, Donna Maestas and husband Paul, William Colby, Sr. and wife, Joyce, Marjorie Anderson and many nieces, nephews and dear friends.

He was predeceased by his 3-siblings, William Anderson Jr., Leonard Anderson, and his sister, Carolyn Sargent.

Visiting hours will be held Saturday, July 28, 1:00-3:00 P.M. at the Amesbury Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, 179 Storey Ave., Newburyport, MA 01950 A memorial service will immediately follow at 3:00 P.M. at the same location. Memorial donations may be made to the Amesbury Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses 179 Storey Avenue, Newburyport, MA 01950.

“ Andy was a most equitable honest business man who I only spoke with on the phone and he was able to provide me with a musty basement solution at a fair price. This was very recently and his sons are from the same mold for they installed the dehumidifier. Andy and his late wife Brenda obviously did a wonderful job raising their large family during some very turbulent times in America.

“ Words can not express the feelings we have for the loss of Andy. He was loved by everyone who knew him and he will be sadly missed by all of us. Andy's kindness was felt by many. We will remember one of his favorite sayings. "Everybody needs an Atta Boy now and then" and he was generous in giving them. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all Anderson Family.

“ Our hearts are saddened for his loss. Your Mom and Dad were a great part of not only our lives but countless others. Our prayers are with the Anderson family, who I love as my own. Butch and Jetheryn When I was teenager and Andy was a policeman he pulled me over I couldn't see who it was, and in a deep voice he said license and registration, then I heard a deep laugh and his voice say got yah. Charlie's going to punish you! Then he said slow down. The big guy had me shaking in my shoes. Can't wait to see him and his lovely bride again.

We will always remember Andy & Brenda as our 2nd set of parents growing up. We always felt welcome in their lives and acquired 6 additional siblings in addition to our 8. So much love and kindness in their hearts always available to all that needed them. Our Love and prayers are with their families! Can't wait to see them both again. Jill (Cook) Burns
