

Lawrence E. MacDougall Jr.

July 26, 1939 - April 5, 2015

Newfields – Lawrence E. “Lawrie” MacDougall, Jr., 75, of Newfields, died Sunday, April 5, 2015 at the Portsmouth Hospital after a prolonged illness. He was surrounded by his loving family.

He was born in Berlin, NH on July 26, 1939, the son of the late Lawrence E. and Gladys E (Perham) MacDougall, Sr.

Lawrie spent most of his youth in Gorham and at 16 years old, his family moved to Rye. He graduated from Portsmouth High School with the Class of 1957 and immediately went to work in the construction business, driving trucks and operating heavy equipment. It was in Rye that he met the love of his life and future wife, Donna (Varrell) MacDougall. The young couple married in 1960 and settled in Rye to raise their family. Lawrie was a quiet, extremely hard-working man whose priority in life was taking care of his family. He was not only a devoted husband and father but a loving grandfather, brother and uncle. He truly enjoyed the weekly family gathering for Saturday evening dinners at his home. He will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved him.

He had worked for a number of transportation and construction companies over the years and most recently Lawrie operated heavy equipment for J. Derenzo Co. out of Brockton, MA.

Family members include his wife of over 54 years, Donna MacDougall of Newfields; his daughters, Corrine Brown and husband Arthur of Hampton and Bonnie Demanche and husband Bill of Exeter; his grandchildren, Blake Brown and Nick and Kenny Demanche and his sisters, Verlie Trefethen of Dover and Carol Bigl of Gorham. He also leaves his special niece, Kim Patton of Rochester as well as his little puppy, Coco.

Family and friends may visit from 4 to 6 PM on Saturday, April 11, 2015 in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home – Crematory, 811 Lafayette Rd., Hampton. Burial will be private.
