“ Leo Belliveau resided the Olde Hampton Village Village Apartments located in Hampton NH.

He moved into his unit in December 2012..

We are so sad to hear of his untimely passing. Leo will be missed by our staff.

He came into the leasing office every month faithfully, to pay his rent.

He was friendly to his neighbors and the office staff, and always had a smile for everyone.

Leo spoke often of his trade, as a master electrician and enjoyed his profession.

Leo also spoke often about his air force military service, and veteran's status.

He was proud to have served his country.

In his leisure time and days off, you would find him at the beach.

“ It's hard to comprehend this loss. He was the first in our generation to leave us. My memory of the Belliveau boys is the station wagon pulling up in mémères driveway and all the car doors opening at once with all of you piling out to race to see who got in the house first. I miss those days as I will miss Leo. Until we meet again. Love your cousin Cheryl
