“ The best father-in-law ever. Roy you will be missed in so many ways. You were the go to person for answers in our life. You were a standup kind of guy and well liked by everyone who met you. I am truly going to miss you, however I will always remember the good times that we had. Especially our trip to Georgia. You will always have a special place in my heart.
Love, your daughter-in-law

“ My Papa Roy was such an amazing man. I'm so thankful he was in my life. Whenever there was a family discussion and we didn't know what to do we would all say "Call Papa, see what he thinks". He was the gold standard of what a man should be. I will miss all our get togethers and having you around. Forever in my heart- Taylor

“ Dad you will be missed so much by everyone. You were always the perfect gentleman. Everyone that met you always commented what a wonderful caring person you were. Always looking out for someone. I believe you are already doing that in heaven. Your advice was always spot on. Anytime I had a question whether about the bible or history you knew the answer. I will always cherish our dinners and card playing. I don't know what I will do with that time now but I know I will always keep you close to my heart. Always and forever.....Your loving daughter

“ What a great man to have known! I first met Roy ( and Sis ) in 1980 when I began dating their oldest son Danny. Since married and living distantly we would always find ourselves calling him for advice or expertise. He made me feel very welcomed into his family and always treated me as such. I'll miss our humble phone conversations Danny and I would have with him. Especially when Danny would call him and say “dad you'll never believe what I just did?” And dad would always chuckle a little and reply back “oh jeesh! What have you got your poor wife into now?” He was always on my side! He'll be missed dearly but always by our side!
