“ Lil was always uncommonly kind to me as a kid in Newtowne Court. I have memories of riding with her in her little red Nash, with the huge black radio knobs, listening to WBZ when that station played music. Of course, we had those trips to Cape May in Dot's brand new '57 Chevy. She set a grand example of a woman ahead of her time, living life on her own terms. Lillian Dilworth, in my father's words, was a remarkable woman. Baptiste family, thanks for sharing her with me.

“ My greatest memories of Lil was at TPP enjoying morning coffee with the crew. All the wonderful cookouts and laughs, bingo. She was a very caring person that only wanted everyone to be happy. Can't forget our TPP Christmas at her home plus her delicious chicken wings. You will be in my heart forever.

“ Lil was one of the sweetest ladies on earth. A very generous woman who appreciated everything anyone did for her. She would always say “I love you” whenever a phone call or visit was over. She will be missed by many people. I love you Lil.
