“ Dear Marcia, I’m shocked and saddened...and my heart breaks for you. What can I say? Lisa treated me like a member of the family. I am blessed to have had the brief time to work with her at eSupport Now. She was a beacon of life, light and laughter. I cannot pretend to know the pain you and the family are feeling... I offer my deepest condolences and prayers of love and comfort. I’m reading this today, on what would have been my dad’s 94 birthday. I pray he zooms through heaven with my mum to welcome Lisa.

You are often in my prayers and thoughts... and in them you and the family will remain. Much Love. Bobert

“ Dear Family of Lisa Courchene,

Sad to read about your lost. Ovarian cancer took the life of my dear wife 6 years ago. I know the pain as I saw my wife suffer greatly but her faith grew during the 6 months and the final 3 months in hospice where we renewed our wedding vows 3 weeks before she fell asleep in the Lord. Life is secure when we have faith in Jesus. God bless all of you. My heart is touched every time I read about this type of cancer. John Hersom Acton Maine USA
