“ I was so sorry to hear of your mother's loss. She was such a wonderful person and great friend to my late mother (Janice Deibert) for so many years. I will miss her smile and laughter. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Lydia's enthusiasm for living, her quirky sense of humor, and her valuable insights showed me at a very early age how living a positive life makes beautiful people. She was truly one of the most beautiful people I have ever known, both inside and out. I feel truly blessed for the day she knocked at my mother's door so many years ago. Their enduring and wonderful friendship, by default, enriching my life as well. I will love her forever and treasure the many memories I am fortunate to have. I will miss her so much but she will always be ever-present in my heart.

“ Dear Friends, I am so saddened to hear of my dear friend Lydia passing. She was always so warm and cheerful. I loved having my visits with all of you. Losing my dear Bud and then my good friend so soon afterward has been difficult. I feel good knowing they are together but sad for my loss. Love to all, Carol

“ Lydia was our best friend, her optimism was contagious, it was a pleasure to be in her company, our friendship of 56 years was a roller coast of ups and downs the way life is at times, but we always stayed in touch and always took the time for one another, we will love her forever. Rest in peace dear friend. Egle and Mike
