Lynda is predeceased by her parents; Leon Borey, and Jessie Vera Whitley, her sister Janet Smith and nephew Mark Thomas.

Lynda lived a rich full life starting her career at Life Magazine at the young age of 19; which she recalled fondly as a real “Mad Men” experience. Lynda loved spending time with her family, friends, she loved all children and animals. She could cook anything, always lit up a room when she walked in with her big bright smile, an incredible sense of humor and infectious laugh; Lynda had an aphorism for almost any situation. Everyone that met Lynda loved her instantly and she will be dearly missed.

“ So sorry to hear of the sudden loss of Lynda. She seemed to have boundless energy and strength. A couple weeks ago she offered to move out my refrigerator for me because I couldn't manage it. I said, no you're 81, she laughed and said OK she probably shouldn't - her kids had been telling her to go easy. My heart goes out to all of her loving family and friends. She'd been so happy recently anticipating moving back to her beloved Marco Island. With deepest sympathy.

“ Sending all my love to Lynda’s family as they grieve their tremendous loss. She was a wonderful friend to our family, and we had many good times together in both Marco Island and in The Villages after Perry and I moved there. When our son Brad got sick, Lynda was there for us all the way, offering her strength and support. Perry left us in October, and I can only imagine that Brad and Perry were waiting with others who loved her to greet Lynda at the gates of Heaven. Barbara Kelley

“ Words cannot describe our deep sadness over losing our Ms. Lynda so suddenly and unexpectedly. She cared for our kids over the years with the love of a grandparent and she selflessly gave of her time, talent, and treasure like few others. Until we meet again, please keep an eye on us from above, Ms. Lynda, and know that we love you deeply and entirely! With love always,

“ Lynda was one of the first friends I made when I moved to Marco Island almost 40 years ago, and we have been friends ever since. She was a good and loyal friend and we had a lot of fun together. Her family was the most important thing to her. She was a good shoulder to cry on and always full of good advice. I will miss Lynda and never forget her.

I had many occasions to visit with Linda when I made trips to NH to see my Grandsons. She always made an effort to come see me and was a delightful guest. She had a beautiful smile and keen sense of humor. The children loved her and she was so very good to them. She will be missed by all who knew her. My sincere sympathy to all of the family. My love and prayers sent to you all.
