“Lynette was a kind, fun and caring person. I loved to see the “sisters 3” together (Lynette, Sandy and Sherry) and laughs were in the air.

My kids have many good memories when visiting the Patterson side of our family and when kin visited us, it was fun. Their Dad’s sisters were hilarious together and when he was with them the group intensified hilarity. I loved to watch that special time unfold!

Lynette and Sherry were very close and the two were a funny combination to watch. The airport pick up and drop off on their visit to see their brother, Dave and I in Iowa was comical. The two were always accompanied by their Duncan’s coffee in one hand and a smile on their faces.

The question of the day that visit to IA was- Where is Lynette’s phone?

I can’t lie- I too was a product of the question of the day on day 2. We girls were out and about going to yard sales and I left my phone in the gas station bathroom- oh and were we stopped for coffee! Lol!

Two peas in a pod Sherry and Lynette, sharing a bedroom during their visit and they had their nighttime routine. I could see them doing that same thing as kids. That thought makes me smile.

Our dog Kira became part of the crew. Kira loved to hang out with the girls and we thought our dog believed they came to visit her! She was so sad to see there visit end.

On that visit, we played games and visited as a group and my boys enjoyed seeing their Aunts. The boys knew their Aunts were fun and made time to enjoy their company.

Family is important and my family has been blessed knowing Lynette and those “Patterson Girls” and my husband’s sisters. My kids Aunty Lynette was fun and funny just like her Mom, Dad and the whole gang. When we get together as a family, there is always a funny story and there is a relative in it!

Lynette- you enjoyed shenanigans just like the rest of the family. That big grin and the light-hearted laughter is your gift to us all. We will remember that full and hearty laugh of yours.

Dan-O and Shane you are loved. Remember the shenanigans and smile when you remember.

Jeff- remember Florida- she got the ring and you got the card! Lol-shenanigans

Sherry- two peas in a pod and Kira wiggling in to be part of the crew! Shenanigans!

God Bless you Lynette!

God Bless the Family!

With much love to all and keep up the shenanigans!!!!
