

Lynette S. Maryea

October 20, 1979 - March 24, 2022

Seabrook – Lynette S. Maryea, 42, of Seabrook, died unexpectedly in a devastating house fire, along with a family dog, Hades. She was born October 20, 1979 in Exeter, the only daughter of Marla Tirone Maryea and the late Norman "Snooky" Maryea.

Lynette was raised in Seabrook and attended Winnacunnet High in Hampton. For the past two decades, she faced many challenges having been diagnosed with bipolar disorder. This did not halt her heart of gold and did not stop her from helping anyone in need, in any way she could. She recently had been making changes to better her life and was very proud of herself. She loved her family and friends fiercely and ended most conversations with an "I love you".

She is survived by her only daughter, Taya Jo Lennox and her fiancé, Corey Brown and their son, Watson Brown, of Seabrook; her mother, Marla Maryea of Kensington; her maternal grandparents, Merlene and Joe Tirone, of Seabrook. On her mother's side, her favorite "Auntie" Evie Wasson and two uncles, Tony "Uncle Bub" Tirone and Joe Tirone all of Seabrook. On her father's side, Naomi Twombly of Northwood and her step-father, Harvey Maryea, of Seabrook. Also survived by her half-brothers, Harvey Maryea of Kensington, and Norman "Joey" Maryea and his young daughter, Mylee Mae of Raymond; her stepbrothers, Jeremiah Maryea, Joshua Maryea; stepsisters, Jeannie Maryea and Jessica Maryea all of Florida and many nieces, nephews, cousins and good friends.

She was predeceased by her father, Norman "Snooky" Maryea; her paternal grandparents, Faith (Palmer) and Norman Maryea; her aunt, Roberta "Peach" Maryea and an infant cousin, Tyler M. Eaton.

Visiting hours will be held from 4 - 5 PM on Friday, April 1, 2022 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton with services immediately follow at 5 PM. “ There isn't a day that goes by that I'm not thinking of you. My heart is broken in a million pieces. You have gone through so much and bounced back and was going to start a new chapter of your life. I am going to miss my morning mocha coffee and my daily phone calls and lunch dates. I'm also going to miss you coming up with your sweet voice and I could always tell you wanted something and you would crack up laughing and ask if you could use my credit card and of course I would always give in. You are my 9lb. 1oz baby girl that I held in my arms the day you were born and I had tears running down my face and my heart was filled with so much love. Your there with your dad now so you can catch up on the times you lost, but be easy on him. Now Hades can run free without having to worry about getting arrested, but still keep an eye on him for me. I don't know what I'm going to do without you I wish I could have traded places with you, you had so many things you wanted to and so many places you wanted to visit but I guess God needed another angel and picked you. Fly high my girl until we see each other again. Mom loves you with all my heart! ❤️ ❤️

“ I want to tell you all how heartbroken I am for the entire family. I know nothing I can say will take your pain and suffering away. It's such a tragedy for everyone in town when we lose someone we have known or have grown-up friends with all the family members. Lynette just like the rest of us has had our struggles in life, but I watched the video of her little niece that she took on Mondays walking with the dog, and I saw a young woman with a heart full of love for that baby. Just like a caterpillar when it matures enough it becomes a beautiful butterfly. As much as you are all going to miss her she has become a beautiful Angel, and she has her wings. Nothing will ever hold her back now, she is home. Such a beautiful girl, and when I look into her eyes I see Marla. You are all in my prayers, and please believe me I feel your pain. All my love to each and every one of you, Liz
