

Mabel G. O'Connor

October 17, 1942 - July 17, 2025

Seabrook- Mabel G. O'Connor (Hersey), of Seabrook, passed away on July 17, 2025, surrounded by her loving family. She was the beloved wife of the late Francis M. O'Connor, with whom she shared 48 years of marriage.

Born on October 17, 1942, Mabel was the daughter of the late Maude B. (Fowler) Hersey and Henry R. Hersey.

She is survived by her six children: Linda Hale (Crocker), Steven Crocker and his wife Lisa, Scot Crocker Sr., Lawrence Crocker Sr. and his wife Lisa, Michael A. O'Connor Sr. and his wife Kelly, and Kellie A. Brown (O'Connor). She also leaves behind her cherished grandchildren: Kyle Crocker, Joshua Crocker, Lisa Cruz, Laurie Hale, Vicki Brown, Heather Rackliffe, Scot Crocker Jr., Lawrence Crocker Jr., Amanda LaChappelle, Michael O'Connor Jr., Morgan Cogdill, Taylar Brown, and Michael Brown III, along with many great-grandchildren and a great-great-granddaughter. She is also survived by her loving sister, Beverly Lauder, as well as cousins, nieces, and nephews.

She was predeceased by her husband Francis, her grandson Richard S. Sunman Jr., her brothers Henry and William Hersey, and her sister Eleanor Griswold.

Mabel had a love for music, treasured time spent with her family and sister, and enjoyed sharing meals together. She was known for her warm personality and wonderful sense of humor. In her earlier years, she enjoyed crocheting, and later developed a passion for researching her family tree, preserving her family's history for future generations.

Per her wishes, there will be no services. Mabel will be deeply missed by her family and all who knew and loved her.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family. Everyone loved Mabel that knew her, and she will be missed. Hold on to all your wonderful memories, and remember this isn't good bye, it's simply see you later. Mabel is in a far better place with all her loved ones that went on ahead of her, but she will be there with opened arms to welcome all her loved ones home when it's their time. Rest in Peace Darlin, Rest in Peace
