

Marcia H. (Brown) Macintosh

November 13, 1921 - March 31, 2013

Hampton, NH - Marcia H. (Brown) Macintosh, 91, of Hampton, passed away peacefully Easter Sunday, March 31, 2013 in her home

Born in Bradford, Massachusetts on November 13, 1921, she was the daughter of the late William Hardie and Grace (Buckley) Brown.

She graduated from Colby Jr. College (now Colby-Sawyer College) in New London with the Class of 1942.

She married her childhood sweetheart, the late Gardner Brown Macintosh of Newburyport, MA on March 11, 1944. They met in the Plaice Cove area of Hampton, when she was three and he was four. He took her by the hand, walked up the stairs to his family's cottage and said to his aunt, "Hey Auntie! Look what I found on the beach!"

Marcia lived in Hampton for 90 summers and about 40 full years. She did volunteer work at Strawberry Banke in Portsmouth for many years. She was deeply loved in the community and made many friends. She was an avid Red Sox fan who enjoyed watching football and golf. She loved working in her garden and watching the seals that sunned themselves on the rocks in front of her home.

She is survived by her daughter Sallie C. Macintosh and her longtime companion Ronald B. Shaw of Newmarket; her son Gardner B. Macintosh, Jr. and his wife Karen K. of Hampton; her grandson Gardner B. Macintosh III and his companion Molly Lea of Peak's Island, ME.

At Marcia's request all services will be private. Donations may be made in her name

To The Rockingham VNA & Hospice, 137 Epping Road, Exeter, NH 03833 or St. Andrews-By-The-Sea, 30 Church Road, P.O. Box 555, Rye, NH 03871.
