

Marguerite B. Fiske

March 4, 1916 - March 24, 2013

Dover – Marguerite Bean Fiske, 97, of Dover, died Sunday, March 24, 2013 at Wentworth Douglass Hospital in Dover.

She was born in Glover, Vermont, March 4, 1916 the youngest child of the late Samuel and Mamie (Hall) Bean.

A deep believer in education she started school at the age of five on her own and her mother didn't find out until three weeks later when the teacher complimented her Mom about how well she was doing in school.

She graduated from the University of Vermont and taught grade school for four years. In 1939 she married Lloyd W. Fiske a dashing barnstorming pilot. They raised four children. Marguerite was a plane spotter during WW II, a den mother until her first Cub Scouts graduated from high school, a Sunday school teacher and served two terms in the New Hampshire House of Representatives, representing Hampton Falls.

She helped form the Seacoast Anti-Pollution League (SAPL), served many years for the FISH organization and was active in the communities she resided in. Most recently she was a resident of Saint Ann's Rehabilitation & Nursing Center in Dover. She also had lived in North Hampton, Hampton Falls, Salisbury, NH, Zephyrhills, Fla. and Burlington, Vermont.

Marguerite had a light touch with people's feelings and with pastry. She was widely read, the family touchstone, was a tour guide in Zephyrhills, and was an elegant hostess for her sumptuous family meals.

Family members include her daughter, Sherril Driscoll and husband Steven of Hampton, two sons, Dana Fiske and wife Nancy of Dover, Eric Fiske and wife Nancy of Bow and 33 grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She was predeceased by her husband Lloyd in 2001 and her son Peter in 1970.

Visiting hours were March 30, 2013 in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton with a prayer service following. The family suggests donations to the Alzheimer's Association, Massachusetts/New Hampshire Chapter, 480 Pleasant Street, Watertown, MA 02472.
