I have many happy memories with Mark. He was my cousin but was more like a brother to me. When we were growing up we shared great summer fun at the beach, birthday parties and of course Christmas. We ran around like maniacs, being goofy and shared a love of penny candy.

As adults, Mark and I used to enjoy Kayaking together and shared an appreciation of nature. Mark, Steve and I were like the 3 amigos growing up, we just had a blast together. I envisioned the 3 of us growing old and reflecting on life together ..as old men...but that was not to be - he was taken too soon.

Mark was a kind and loving soul and I am very grateful for having known him. He will be sorely missed. I offer my deepest condolences to Aunt Irene, Steve, Julie, Richard Matthew and Sam.

“ Our family has been so blessed by the presence of the entire Scaturro family over the years. Mark was a special human and honorary uncle. He will be deeply missed by the folks in Maine and Texas. Sending your family our deepest condolences and so much love.

“ I loved Mark so much. For years, he was like family to me. I will forever remember his welcoming smile, the way he hugged me when I needed it, and even when I didn't, the way he treated animals with respect and love, his love of all things nature and his family. He was a force. He will live in my heart and mind forever. The planet is less without his presence. I am, however, glad his body is out of pain and suffering. I know that wherever his soul is now, is a better place.

What a dear and special man. May many happy memories--and the "peace that passes all understanding"--bring comfort to his family and friends who loved him so well.
