

Mark W. Sielicki

January 8, 1963 - March 2, 2025

Seabrook – Mark W. Sielicki, 62, of Seabrook, passed away on Sunday, March 2, 2025. He was born on January 8, 1963, in Boston, MA, to the late Everett W. Sielicki and Mary E. Kamrath (Jordan) of Arizona. Mark was married to the love of his life Sue Johnson, at the time of his passing.

Mark was raised in Salisbury, MA, and graduated from Triton Regional High School with the Class of 1981. He proudly served his country in the United States Army until he was honorably discharged. Throughout his life, Mark worked a variety of jobs, including time in the roofer's union, carpenter's union—during the era of the Big Dig in Boston. After gladly hanging up his toolbelt, he used his CDL license and got a job delivering oil and propane. He really enjoyed being “the oil man”.

Mark loved spending time on the ocean whether it was deep sea fishing for cod and haddock, bluefin tuna fishing, pulling lobster traps, digging clams at the harbor or catching stripers in the Merrimack River. He also enjoyed hunting for deer. He also loved playing cards and trying his luck gambling. He will be remembered for his charisma, boundless energy. More than anything, he cherished time spent with his grandchildren and his best friend and son, Alex.

In addition to his wife and mother, Mark is survived by his children, Alex

Sielicki, and his wife Rosalind. His stepchildren Kate Gagnon, and Matthew Gagnon. He also leaves behind his beloved grandchildren, Alex Jr., and Emma Grace, as well as his siblings, Kim Contarino, Holly Estes, Jolene Eaton, Michael Sielicki, and Steve Jordan, along with many nieces, nephews, and extended family members who will miss him dearly.

Visitation will be held on Saturday, March 8, 2025, from 2 PM to 4 PM at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton.

“ It's with a heavy heart that we remember Mark, who left us far too soon. His sudden passing has left a void that will be deeply felt by all who knew him.

Mark was more than just a friend; he was family. My parents, my brother, and I always considered him one of our own. He possessed a rare warmth and genuine kindness that made him an absolute pleasure to be around.

We will forever cherish the countless hours he spent with my mom and dad. His presence was a source of comfort and joy for them, especially in their later years. They valued his and Sue's friendship immensely, and we are all so grateful for the love and support they shared.

Knowing that Mark was there for them meant the world to us. It's a testament to his character that he offered his time and companionship so freely.

Now, as we mourn his loss, we take comfort in the thought of him reunited with my parents, Judy and Tom. I imagine them sharing stories, laughing, and perhaps even raising a glass together. May he find everlasting peace, and may they all keep a watchful eye on us here.

Mark, you will be deeply missed. Your memory will live on in our hearts, and we will always remember the wonderful person you were.
