I would love to share my favorite memory. We were at a family event. I believe Uncle Wolford birthday and my son Travis who had never met her and was 5 walked up took her by the hand and went for a walk. When they returned she said I don't know who he is or who he belongs to but he I a lovely young man. That's the kind caring loving woman I remember. Love you Aunt Marty....Ida Tallant and Family

“ Last year I was in Seabrook McDonald's with my family eating dinner when I saw Aunt Marty walk by and wave and smile at my son Bryan. I stopped dead because I didn't know her but she liked exactly my like my Nana (Grace). As we are Bryan and Marty continued to play games across the room. I finally had to ask if We were related only to find out she is my Nana's sister. It was a synchronistic and beautiful experience to see her so gracefully connect to Bryan. They were instant friends. Rest In Peace Aunt Marty.

“ Dearest Nana,
Where do I begin.. There are many memories that I hold of you but the most recent are those we shared at camp. Soaking up the sun in the recliners, eating snacks together when Uncle Paul wasn't looking..haha and of course all the dancing we did(definetely got my love for dancing from you and my dad) I enjoyed every bit of everyday spent with you. The many rides we took looking at the pretty flowers on the days you hung out at my house. Oh the fun we had at the Patsy Cline concert for your birthday. Patsy was great but you were the best singer there!! I could go on for days with memories of you!! Thank you for being the best Nana to all of your many grandchildren and the best mom to my dad.. We will all miss you Nana! Love you to camp and back a trillion times!!

Love, Vanessa

Robert and I treasured living up in Glen with you and Uncle Walt and the fun the four of us had. You were a great mom and a wonderful, compassionate, and a very wise woman. I don't know where to begin. I feel like I just lost my Mom all over again. Aunt Marty was like a second Mom to me, my sister and brothers. My favorite memory is when we all spent time on the beach together in the summer while our Dads pulled cop duty at the beach. My mom, Grace and Aunt Marty would pack up picnics and take us to the beach for the day. Mom and Aunt Marty were always together and they always made us laugh. We had such fun times with them. May they meet together in the great beyond. You will be missed.

Love you,

Linda
