“ I was childhood friends with Mary Ann's younger brother John. She was always so patient with us. Always sweet and always kind. I can still hear her belly laugh and see that smile after all these years. Whenever she comes to mind the thought of her always makes me smile. Right now I'm smiling with a tear in my eye. Thanks for being part of my trip Mary Ann. Say hello to Johnny who most likely is hanging with Jimmy Albert and Peter Barbaro.

“ *Dear family of Mary Ann
It is with sincere sympathy that Steve and I send to you all this day - especially to Mary Ann's daughter and beautiful grandson, Robbie. We didn't know Mary Ann outside of church. She and Robbie would sit in the same pew and worshipped together with us. We will forever remember her faithfulness and her spot with Robbie at the 9:00am Sunday Mass as will many others who also attend at that time.
May you soar on angels wings Mary Ann and may you rest in perfect peace with our Lord and Savior.
Your absence will forever be felt.
With love and sympathy to your husband and entire family,
Your friends from the 9:00am morning mass
