

Mary F. Dracopoulos

March 16, 1947 - February 15, 2014

Seabrook, NH – Mary F. “Mandy” Dracopoulos, 66 of Seabrook, formerly of Nashua, NH, Lynn, MA and Salisbury, MA died suddenly on Saturday, February 15, 2014 at her home.

She was born March 16, 1947 in Nashua, a daughter of the late George and Rose (Sher) Mandravelis.

Her early years were spent in Nashua before moving to Lynn just before her senior year in high school. She graduated from Lynn Classical High School with the Class of 1965 and trained to become a professional hair stylist. She worked as a hairdresser in Lynn and Lynnfield, MA before opening her own shop, Shear Pleasure of Salisbury, which she managed for the next 12 years. Mary then opened a gift shop, Now and Then, of Salisbury. Most recently, she worked as a cashier at the Walmart in Seabrook.

Family members include her sister Irene DeStefano of Derry, NH, her brothers David Mandravelis of Prentiss, ME, Phillip Mandravelis and his wife Kathleen of Foxboro, MA, Peter Mandravelis and his wife Toni of Jacksonville, NC, her beloved Aunt Esther Kramer, her former husband of over 30 years, William Dracopoulos of Portsmouth, NH and many nieces, nephews, cousins and grandchildren.

In addition to her parents, Mary was predeceased by her brother Paul Mandravelis.

At Mary's request, all services will be private. If desired, donations may be made in her name to Project ALS, 801 Riverside Dr. #6G, New York, NY 10032.
