“ My dear aunt Mary, you will always be in my heart. I have the fondest childhood memories at your house eating apple pie and sleeping over with my cousins and hearing a weird train notice coming from the other room. It was Uncle Tom. I always wondered how he made that noise. I can hear it now. Seems like just the other day. Until we see each other again in heaven!! As your sister, my mom Josephine said, the Good Lord has a special place for you up there!!
