“ *I am so very sad to read this today. My deepest condolences to Mary's family. I had worked with Mary at Bailey's and at the Visa Center. She was a wonderful woman. I am sorry I couldn't have said farewell to you. You fought hard Mary and are now without pain.
Rest In Peace my friend. Sending Hugs up to heaven to you. Love, Darlene*

“ I worked with Mary at DCF in Florida. She was a great woman of dignity and poise. One of the most ethical, woman of integrity I have ever known. My heart grieves over the loss of this dear soul. She is surely with our Lord Jesus.

With Great Respect.

“ My beautiful cousin... You stood strong all the way. Just thinking last summer you climbed that Mountain up North and did many more things on your bucket list. I remember you cutting my hair when I was little and always treating me so special. I am so thankful for the time I had with you. Your little man is so grown and he is so handsome. When he came in the other day his head almost hit the ceiling. I am sure your dad was waiting for you at the gates along with all your Aunt's...Prayers for you and the whole family. love you cuz
