“ Dear Miss Mary,
Time goes by so quickly. Wasn't it just yesterday that I was at your house with Shawna, either playing in the yard or later on, picking her up for one of our wild adventures? I still can see you holding the screen door open in the sunroom and waving your hand hello to me. Was it so long ago that we sat at Rye Beach with our families close around us, taking in all the warm weather as well as the kinship shared so closely among all the families we had grown up with. It seems as if I was just at your house for all the occasions going back so many years,,, Easter, Christmas, Shawna's wedding, Jillian and Shawn's births. You made me feel so welcomed and loved, always a big hug, and a warm, "Hi, Lisa"! Rest in peace, Miss Mary, and make sure to say hello to JR for me.
May your wonderful memory be eternal.
With love,

Always pleasant, always smiling, always kind. Mary I will miss you on your deck as I walked to the beach. We always had something to talk about. I will miss seeing you walking with Linda. You kept up at an incredible pace.
May you now be with your loving husband.
