“ Mary Lou Miller was such a good friend of mine. We both lived in Rye, NH, and we worked in the Rye Selectmen's office at one time.

I remember a time when Mary Lou took me to visit her husband Joe's grave in the Rye Cemetery. While visiting his grave, Mary Lou placed a penny on his grave stone. I asked her what did that mean. She said, "A penny for your thoughts." I never forgot that, and every time I visit my relatives or friends who have passed, I leave a penny, plus I have passed this story on to my family and friends. I am so sorry Mary Lou that I can't put a penny on your grave.

My prayers go out to Mary Lou's family and many friends. Amanda, Joe, your Mother loved you both so very much. God bless you and your families.
