“ When I lost my grandmother, Mary said I could call her Grammy if I wanted. She was so full of life and a joy to know. It was a blessing to go to church with her for the time that I was there at EUMC.

“ Mary was the kindest and sweetest mother i ever met in my early years and the mother of my dear friend Patty. She was always involved in some group, club or church activity that leaned on making young ones the best that they could be. She always was coming up with something that broaden ones world. I remember her rubber egg as if it was yesterday. A small thing but in the eyes of a child it was magic. She is one piece of my childhood from so long ago that I will always cherish. Cheryl, Betsy and Karen my heart cries for your loss and no words can replace the emptiness that has been forced upon you. Please take comfort in knowing your mom touched more then just your hearts and soul.
