“ Betty - the first born to Lois... And there a mother's love and sacrifice began. Through our Mom each one of us learned, passed down, shared - not only her Faith in God but love for our children and each other. I watched you love, care for, sacrifice for your children. As the youngest born to Lois, my greatest Blessings have been the life lessons I have learned from being raised by all my older siblings. Nieces and nephews were siblings to me growing up. Every holiday, every family reunion, was a Blessed reminder that life is family and family is life. Betty, you always amazed me that raising 6 kids, and all that comes with that - you always looked beautiful and sexy! What a precious gift you are to all of us that have been lucky enough to know you.

I'm so thankful we were able to visit over dinner this last July. And our brief conversation over the phone brought us all together again. I received my birthday card as always - thank you Bruce for getting this in the mail to me. A white kitty! A purrfect symbol for my Big Sister, now an Angel.

Betty, I know you were greeted with open arms and hearts. Peace is all ther there is now for you. I never understood how you loved fishing- but it wasn't the fishing- it was the peace it brought to your crazy busy world. I love you, the world is a more beautiful place for having you here with us.

*Love you Big,
Tammy Younger*

“ To my beloved mother in law.. I was a mere 16 yrs old when I met your son, Brian and when I went to my first family reunion I was made to feel very welcomed, I thought you were a beautiful woman then and I still do now. Many years later you told me once that you felt I was the best thing that happened to your son, I was a little humbled by that and told you we were the best thing that happened to each other , you gave me a hug and told me that you loved me ! Ill never forget that ever... RIP beautiful lady .. and we will honor you by watching over Bruce and making sure he knows he is loved and he will never lose us ! Say hi to Lisa !

“ Betty, you were our neighbor for half of my life, and the best at that. We started in 1980 at the cottages, and from there we were side by side here in Seabrook, up until you got your new home, which doesn't seem that long ago. Now your an angel to watch over us all. I'll never forget when you and Bruce introduced me to Tuffy the dog,,,, to see him ride on the motorcycle will forever be in my mind. You were so proud. And so will your beautiful and contagious smile ! Rest in Peace, Our Friend, and some day we may be neighbors again. :-)
