“ Dear Joe and Joseph,

As the Rye Elementary School counselor, I worked with Mary for many years. She was kind, dedicated, and her cursive writing was legendary. Her teaching gave many students a solid academic base as well as life lessons.

My thoughts are with her family and friends.

“ Dear Joe and family,
The Fontaine family was sad to hear about Mrs. Danahy's passing. Our children will always remember her fondly as their First Grade teacher at RES. We also remember her as she attended St. Theresa's parish weekly and we treasured our visits at the door greeting her as she came into church. Hugs and prayers for you all.
Love,
Greg, Mary, Catherine, and Michael
