

Maureen E. Essigmann

February 9, 1961 - January 22, 2026

Seabrook Beach - Maureen Elizabeth Essigmann (Kilcoyne), 64, of Seabrook Beach, died peacefully on Thursday, January 22, 2026 at her home surrounded by her family.

She was born in Lawrence, Massachusetts on February 9th, 1961.

Maureen began her career as a cosmetologist and opened her own salon on Seabrook Beach. Her true calling would be found as a devoted mother to her three sons: Thomas, James, and Daniel. Maureen's unconditional love was felt by everyone she encountered through the joy she spread everyday she lived.

She is survived by her brothers Michael and Peter, sister Cathleen, sons Thomas, James, and Daniel, and grandchildren Eliza and Christopher.

In accordance with Maureen's wishes a small celebration of life ceremony will be held on Seabrook Beach in the Summer of 2026. The family will reach out with more information. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Maureen's name to the NHSPCA by clicking here (<https://www.classy.org/give/127067/#!/donation/checkout>).

“ I knew Maureen my entire life. I grew up on Seabrook Beach. I grew up around her and her children to Tommy and Danny and Jimmy and Peter you have my deepest condolences and sympathy. Maureen was a special person. She was good to a lot of people, especially kids and I have many memories of her and most of them are very fond ones Godspeed and again my deepest condolences to the family. You're in my thoughts and prayers she will be missed. Seabrook Beach will not be the same without her smile rest well love JJ.
