“ Growing up my brothers and I looked forward to going to Uncle Moe's and Aunt Terry's house. Spending the day there was so much fun. Uncle Moe would spend hours with us kids. He loved to play with us and come up with some interesting games. His smile, his laughter, his love made the day. Uncle Moe loved to play board games, watch football and just being with his family. My cousins have lost a great dad. My aunt has lost a great husband and friend. I know that Uncle Moe is making God laugh as he listens to Uncle Moe's jokes and stories.
I will miss you Uncle Moe.

“ Terry and all the Mayo family:

Our hearts go out to you on the loss of Moe. We remember fondly all of the days at the marina, the cruises to Maine and times spent at your home. Moe knew the coast line like the back of his hand and, with Terry, took us to many out of the way beautiful spots on our various trips. We never would have found (or dared to go through) the 'thread of life', but Moe, being the true sea captain he was, didn't bat an eye at going through this beautiful area. When thinking of Moe, some of the best memories that come to mind are our evening at The Deck House dinner theater at Southwest Harbor and trips to the Carousel Marina in Boothbay. Moe knew everyone and everyone knew him up and down the coast. We will miss him dearly.

Rest in peace dear friend.

“ My first job out of high school was working at Improved Machinery over 50 yrs. ago. I have the privilege of working with Mr. Mayo. I worked in the billing dept. and later was promoted to handle foreign shipments, which meant I had to have paperwork signed and approved by him. Going down to the "executive offices" was pretty intimidating to a young person working at her first full time job. me. Mr. Mayo was just the kindest, most gracious man. When I felt pressure to get the last minute paperwork done quickly I would panic. He would always be very calm and calm me down and assure me he understood my anxiety and that we could get it done together. I've thought of him many times over the years and wondered where he was and how he was doing. From reading the local obituary I see he had an active, happy life with a large and close family. My condolences to all of you and know that your husband, father, grandfather was a very caring and compassionate man who was very well respected.
