“ Hard to pin point one time for me to talk about. But one very particular moment was the night I met you in Hampton Beach with Danny Lucas. We were just young teenagers living life. We remained friends through my many years in prison. I remember you asking me to your prom. lol. But it’s been hard. It’s taken me 4 years to write something here. I haven’t spoken to your sister in some time. She still misses you so much. There’s a void out here. It hurts. For me it won’t go away. I wish you were here and I truly appreciate our talks. The loyalty. The love. Nothing is better than remembering my summers at Hampton and seeing you. I know your family appreciates the love from all of your friends. I love you very much and I miss you.

“ Michele my love. I will always be loving and missing you. Your Beautiful personality and energy. You have the biggest heart of anybody. You never would give up. I loved that tenacity along with many other things we shared in common like music, dancing, going to the beach. We also enjoyed good food. I wasn't looking for a partner and once we got to know a little bit of each other we couldn't stop it. It just happened we fell head over heels for each other. Your unreplacable and unforgettable. Im doing my best to stay strong because I know that's what you'd want.

“ My condolences go to her friends, family, and especially to her sweet daughters. Michele was a beautiful soul. She loved her girls deeply, often braiding her daughters' hair in beautiful twists and hairdos with ribbons and kissing them on the head, and spending her days caring for her mom. You will be missed- Emily

“ I remember when I first got my license and locked my keys in the car at Hannafords. I didn't know Michele at the time but she happened to be parked next to me with her daughters. Without any doubt she helped me out and gave me a ride home. To this day that is something I won't ever forget. Michele left the biggest impact on me and I'm happy I was able to get the chance to cross paths with her. This world will forever be a better place because of her, sending love and healing to her family and friends. Rest In Peace sweet girl ❤️
