

Michelle Marie Madore

May 2, 1969 - February 11, 2025

Seabrook - Michelle Marie Madore, 55, of Seabrook, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, February 11, 2025, at her home.

She was born May 2, 1969, in Portland, ME, daughter of the late Diana Cote. She was raised in Newburyport, MA where she attended high school and enjoyed summers on Plum Island. She went on to earn a Liberal Arts Degree at Northern Essex Community College. She fostered a love for learning which she explored throughout her adult life including religion, history, music, literature, early/late childhood mental health, and development.

Michelle worked for many years as a waitress at Kitty's Restaurant in North Reading, MA where she met her lifelong friend Alicen Encarnacao Racca. She was a big sports fan and loved watching her favorite team, the New England Patriots. In the past few years, she took a keen interest in exploring her family ancestry with her cousin James Coyle.

Michelle is survived by her three children: her sons Nicholas Caughey and Benjamin Madore, and daughter Melanie Breeze. She also leaves behind her long-term partner Keith Abate of Seabrook as well as many friends and family members whom she enjoyed a variety activity over the years.

Services will be held privately, any friends or family members wishing to attend are encouraged to reach out for details.
