

Michelle V. Morabito

September 28, 1970 - November 23, 2017

Hampton – Michelle V. Morabito, 47, of Hampton, passed away peacefully on Thursday, November 23, 2017 surrounded by her loving family. Michelle was born in Monkstown, County Cork, Ireland, one of three daughters to Patrick G. and Sylvia (McCarthy) Fehily of Monkstown.

She was raised in Ireland and in 1994, while working as an au pair in Boston, met and fell in love with Anthony J. Morabito. Michelle and Anthony married in 1996 and settled in Hampton to raise their family. Michelle was a private, yet hard-working lady, and taking care of her girls was the most important part of her life. She had worked over 16 years for the NH Liquor Commission at both the Rt. 95 North and South stores.

In addition to her parents and her devoted husband Anthony, Michelle leaves her loving daughters, Skye and Ava Morabito of Hampton, her brother Alan Fehily of Ireland and her sisters Laura Fehily and Diane Taylor also of Ireland. Michelle also had many friends and she will be sadly missed by all who knew and loved her.

Services will be private. If desired, memorial donations may be made to the Hospice Help Foundation, 155 Fleet St., Portsmouth, NH 03801, <https://hhelppfoundation.org/donate-now/>.

“ When most people were home watching Friends in the '90s our little crew in Boston was down at the pub sharing a million laughs. We eventually left the pub behind for soccer games and dance recitals but we took the laughs with us wherever we went. 25 years of friendship and no matter how far apart or how long we went from seeing each other, we always went right back to the laughs and that's what made our friendships special. I will miss laughing with you for now, hon, but I won't say goodbye...just see you later and we'll laugh together again. Save us a seat, kid and rest easy. -Jeff

“ To my best friend's mom:

Thank you for always treating me like your own, and making me feel like a part of your family. Thank you for always making me laugh and putting me in a good mood whenever I was around. The memories I share with you I will always cherish. You were one of my favorite people on this planet and I will miss you endlessly.

*Love always,
Jordan*

“Michelle, what can I say? You are my oldest friend. Although we didn't see each other very often due to our locations, the time melted away when we did meet up. You were beautiful both inside and out. I will always have wonderful memories of you at ballet class and of our foreign holidays we went on together. What a wonderful mother you were and wife and friend. I will miss you forever, my wonderful, beautiful girl.

Love always,

“We are very sorry for your loss. We remember Michelle, and Skye, as a customer of our laundromat on Rt. 1 in Hampton many years ago. She was a kind person and wonderful mother. Your family is in our hearts and prayers.

“ Michelle was a special person. She always maintained a sweet soft demeanor in all situations. Her personality was a shining beautiful one. I am so glad that I got to see and laugh with you one more time this past summer. You always listened intently and genuinely care about what anyone had to say. God will open his arms to a wonderfully loved lady. I am so glad to have known you.
