“ My thoughts and prayers go out to mama Millie and her family. I had the pleasure of working with Millie and we always had a good time which made the day go by fast and we had a lot of fun. I had to laugh when I read in Millie's obituary that Millie retired in 1996 that gave me a little chuckle. I started working at D.G.O in 1999 Millie was still there the first day I started my job. I saw Millie sitting at her counter all ready for work. I was being taught by Millie to do the jobs that Millie was doing so hopefully she could finally retire once and for all, needless to say that didn't happen. Millie ended up staying and teaching me how to do other jobs that needed to be taught in our department. I learned a lot from my mama Millie I will miss her dearly. Rest in peace Millie and we will see one another again one day. God has got one of the best angels he could ever ask for enjoy your retirement Millie you will be with us anymore insight but you will always hold the place in everyone's hearts!!💕💕💕💕
