“ Moira.....you were my soul sister through thick and thin. You taught me so much and inspired my love for classic rock and The Stones. We shared a profound friendship, we watched our children grow together, we loved and we fought, we picked each other up, we sat through graduations and marriages together, and we've sat through funerals together. We always had each others backs. I'm sorry I wasn't there to say goodbye. But, it's never goodbye, my sweet friend, it's until we meet again. Sláinte

“ Moira, my friend was strong, spunky & full of sass. We clicked while waitressing one summer at Hampton Beach. She had a great sense of humor & we shared many laughs over the years. She, the ultimate Stones fan, while I am a major Beatles fanatic. We debated which band ruled, while appreciating both. We spent many of nights talking & philosophizing while our favorite tunes played in the background. She was a gentle soul, kind person & good friend. She had a love for animals & nature and an adventurous spirit. She will be sorely missed but not forgotten. ”
