“ Nancy was more than Kelley’s mom to me. She was always open for a hug every time I came over. We shared some laughter and giggles on FB as well. I will miss you Nancy!!!!

“ My deepest sympathy to the Gleason Family. I have so many fond memories of growing up with the Gleason family on Boardman Street. One in particular is every time I start to make dropped eggs on toast Nancy comes to mind instantly... I can still see the big pot she would cook them in for all us kids! Heaven has gained an angel and she will always be looking over her love ones. All my love Blanche Deshais Andrews
