“ Thank you to all who attended Natalie's funeral to pay their respects, and for the expression of condolences on this website. We appreciate the generosity and thoughtfulness of those who made donations, sent flower arrangements, and brought food to the house. You were of great comfort and helped us get through this most difficult time.

*Gratefully,
The Perkins family*

“ We were good neighbors for many decades on Seabrook Beach until all of us moved on to other locations. Even then, Christmas letters and cards kept us in touch. Surely, this last connection shall be missed, although all the memories can be cherished forever. Our son, Rob, enjoyed working for you and Dick for several summers before we moved. You had not been declared his Godmother, but Rob considered Natalie as much, because of all her thoughtful and caring religious guidance. Though it is sad to know you are finally gone from this world, it makes us happy to know you lived a long and rich life upon the land and as a faithful servant of Jesus, have gone to be with our Lord in Heaven. Sincerely, Rob, Ruth and Bob Castonguay

“ I will miss our weekly talks. You always managed to quote a verse from the bible, trying to help brighten my day. You had so much Love for Dick, Miriam, Jeff, and even for your sisters, brothers, nieces, and nephews. I love you Natalie. I will miss you so much. Memory be Eternal!

“ My beautiful Aunt and Godmother, with a sweet and gentle voice. My favorite memories are when she would come home from a trip on the ship. We would all be so excited to see her! She would bring my sister and I a doll from the country she had just visited. It was so exotic to us. And she gave the best back rubs to her little niece! She had a generous and loving heart. Love you, Aunt Natalie.
