“ I am so sorry for your loss. I remember Neil from my Hampton days and how supportive he always was of local athletics and athletes. He was a contemporary of my sister, and I remember buying lobsters from his Tide Mill Rd home. Please accept my deepest sympathies. Greg Pickering

“ He was the BEST Uncle little kids could ask for. He took care of all of us when we were left without a dad. He was silly, fun, and a genuine great person to look up to. He was a prankster and a joker and when in conversation with him you never knew if he was kidding until you saw the grin and twinkle in his eyes. I know life threw lemons at him at times but he was extra special to me growing up. His calls to invite me fishing, lobstering or snow plowing made me feel so special.

Thank you Uncle Neil for making this little girl realize that life wasn't always serious, that times could be a barrel of laughs and many times they were spent in fits of giggles!

I love you and will miss you so much!!! - Laurie
