“ Honey Ill never forget you my friend, we had lots of memories from our younger years, we really had some crazy times, we were inseparable in the younger years but we sort of drifted apart for awhile when you moved to Florida, I did follow you down there for a visit, it was nice. I remember when you lived at my house with me and my Dad that was great, and the time we hid from my Ma but she found us in the AM eating those dry frackers, I'm laughing remembering all our fun and I am so glad I got to share it with you. There's a lot more that I'll keep remembering after all it's been 65 years of a good friendship. you will always be a good part of my life. Love you and will miss talking to you on Facebook and the phone, I love you Hon your with my boy now so help watch over him

Our thoughts and prayers will be with the family during these difficult days ahead! Dad(Tinker) so looked forward to going to Florida every winter to stay with Honey and Maxie! Honey took care of him and Ma when they went. It brought comfort to us children knowing they were safe and being spoiled. So, so sorry for your loss!
