

Nicholas S. "Duffy" Fudge

August 1, 1989 - July 19, 2018

Greenland - Nicholas S. "Duffy" Fudge, 28, of Greenland, passed away unexpectedly on Thursday, July 19, 2018.

He was born August 1, 1989 in Topsfield, MA a son of Ronald Fudge Jr. of Topsfield and Judy (VanDeVoorde) Fudge of Greenland.

Nick graduated from Portsmouth High School. He excelled in any sport he played, and among his favorites were fishing, hockey, lacrosse, skiing, snowboarding, and surfing.

His passions were fishing and the outdoors. As a child, Nick began tuna fishing with his father and grandfather. After becoming one of the top sport fishermen in the country, he earned a place on the National Geographic reality show Wicked Tuna for multiple seasons. Nick also treasured the environment and he took seriously his responsibility to protect it.

Someone once said, "Nick was always the coolest kid, but he had a way of making you feel like you were just as cool." His presence could light up any room and he had a heart of gold. He was known for his smile, his fearlessness, his adventurous spirit, his mischievous sense of humor, and giving big hugs.

Nick now begins his next adventure to locate his missing cell phones, ID's, and credit cards.

In addition to his parents, he leaves his "younger" brother Cody Fudge; paternal grandfather Ronald Fudge Sr. of Topsfield; maternal grandparents Terry & Connie VanDeVoorde of Nashua; girlfriend Ali Currier of Holderness and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and many, many friends.

He was predeceased by his grandmother Marilyn Fudge.

Visitation will be held from 4 to 8 PM on Wednesday, July 25, 2018 in the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited and asked to dress "Duffy style". A celebration of life will be announced at a later date. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Nicholas "Duffy" Fudge Memorial Fund, a fund established to help environment preservation, % TD Bank, 46 Lafayette Road, North Hampton, NH 03862. Please visit www.RemickGendron.com to view Nick's complete obituary, sign his tribute wall or for directions.

“ Sending my condolences to Duffys friends and family. I didn't know Duffy personally. Rather watched him often on Wicked Tuna. I cannot imagine the loss the community and Duffys family are feeling. As, my family feels his absence. It's clear that he was very compassionate, playful and full of life. It touched more lives then he probably ever imagined and we will all miss him and the positive and beautiful energy he brought to the world! Praying comfort for all who knew him and loved him

“ One of my favorite shows on tv and one of my favorite boats to watch. Wild, unpredictable, sometimes crazy and confrontational, but that's what made them fun to watch and there always in the running with the rest of the fleet. The funniest episode I've seen since watching this show was when the two of them showed up with a black eye. Too funny. They kicked each other's ass, then jumped on a boat together to kick some ass out on the water. Will miss this duo on the show, but as Duffy will have the joy of watching the next mate kick Tyler's ass. RIP DUFFY

“ So sorry for the loss of your precious son. To Mom, i lost my son 12 years ago on the 28th of this month. I don't know you, i'm from NC, but my heart aches for you. Somedays it'll be 12 years, other days 12 minutes since i saw him. Ben was also a fisherman, he died fishing in Alaska of an accidental gun shot.. he will always be with you thru pennies from heaven, butterflies, and dragonflies. Speak of him often so everyone will say his name. Look for a compassionate friend group in your area. They have all lost children. We meet once a month and share memories, cry, eat brownies. And try to give some support in any way we can. God bless ..

“ My prayers go out to all of the Fudge family and friends. I pray the peace which surpasses all understanding in this horrific time of loss. As a mother of 5 and grandma to 2 I couldn't imagine pain of loving your son for almost 29 years and saying goodbye so young. I lost my twin son in my last pregnancy (which has been extremely painful) yet still I don't think the pain compares. I want to thank you for sharing “Duffy” with the world. I have always looked forward to watching him doing the little dance they do after they had caught a fish, the extremely hard work he always put into each fish, his contagious kind spirit and his love for what he did. You did a wonderful job raising such a kind, loving, hard working man. You should be very proud of yourselves. I will forever remember him defending his family on the show. It goes to show the deep and great love he had for you all. Wicked Tuna will not be the same! However I pray that his wonderful memories will live forever in your hearts! Again I'm so sorry for your pain and your loss. My prayers will continue with your family. Can't wait to see you again fishing in heavenly waters Duff. #DuffyFanForever

“ I'm saddened by this shocking news! I don't understand how or why he's gone at such a young age! My husband and I watch tge show together. We put it on our DVR so we don't miss a show!! We were both shocked as we looked at each other after the show was over Sunday and saw the Memory post of "Duffy"! 😞 Rest in piece! Praying for healing and strength as you try to make sense of his loss.

“ To the Fudge Family,
With deepest sympathy to all of. Totally understand your heartache as just lost my nephew who was like a son. Just by chance have been following the show for the last 5 months along with my 87 year old mother who is totally hooked. I wanted to pass along we enjoyed watching “Duffy” and will definitely miss him.
Stay strong he seemed like a truly wonderful person and fisherman.

“ Dear Family -Girlfriend & Buddy’s of Duffy,
I’m just an old lady viewer that grew up fishing off the coast of Ventura California.
Duffy brought me great joy watching his easy style of fishing with his legs on & over the side of the Pinwheel - his infectious laugh & his love of life attitude.
Even though I didn’t know him personally, I felt like he was my

“ I'm so deeply sorry for everyone's loss. My favorite memory of Duffy was the last show of the season when he caught the winning tuna by himself, he was so focused as Tyler's finger was coming off again and he brought in the fish that made them the winning boat. If not for Nicholas Tyler would have lost. A great loss for all who admired his skill, focus, strength, talent and personality. I'm just a viewer but I feel the loss and will pray for him tonight...my deep condolences to his family

“ This was a shocker, and my heart cried. I will miss Duffy. He had a spirit on the show that know one else had. He will be hard to replace, as he can't be replaced, someone will work in his place. They were my favorite on the show, and I always called them the hippies.. I would scream at the tv, hoping they got the tuna, and laugh when Duffy and Tyler would dance around when they got the big one. R.I.P. Duffy, watch over Ty, you got your wings, now fly high.

“ I knew Duffy from a long time ago. I love the show Wicked Tuna and I said to my ex-fiancé.. "I know that guy!" I thought It was so cool that someone I knew was on TV.

Pinwheel is the best tuna boat on the east coast. I have never wanted to catch a tuna so bad in my life until I saw the crew being challenged when reeling one in. Words can't describe my love for fishing.

So, I went home the other night, was getting ready for bed, when my brother called me and said come to Rockland. It was on a weeknight, I never go out on a weeknight, I was tired and really didn't feel like going anywhere but this little voice in my head told me to. The last person I expected to see was Nick but I did and I will cherish that night for the rest of my life. He was so kind and down to earth. I just can't even believe he's gone, it doesn't even seem real. I thought it was a joke honestly because I had just talked to him a few nights ago. He will be missed tremendously. I send my condolences to his family on land and his family on the sea. We weren't close physically but spiritually... when we hung out it was like we had been close for years. My heart breaks over this...I will never forget his admirable way of life and determination for peace on earth. He always put a smile on my face, in person and on TV. He helped me to look at life in another light, a positive light and I will never forget him. I just wish there was a way to thank him for the difference he made in my life. In my heart and in my soul I will always hold him close...His spirit will remain, however I'm afraid that Wicked Tuna will never be the same.

“ I send my condolences to the family and friends. The thing about reality TV is you begin to live vicariously with them. You feel you know them, celebrate with them, cry with them.

I turned on the computer last night and went to watch this weekends episode of WTOB only to be greeted by the sad, sad news. I had lost a friend. I had just seen him a week ago. Thank god he did what he did cause in TV your life lives on forever - as long as their is someone watching.

I wish your family peace, I hope you can find joy in remembering a smile and a laugh, I hope each time you celebrate, in his memory, you raise your hand and yell "pinwheel baby" .. and your other memories of what he would yell out ... I'm sure he had a few.

Tyler may you find peace. Like a married couple you would fight - but in the end - friendship and brotherhood is much bigger than anything on this planet.

Not sure how religious he was, but knowing he celebrated his life in God's first Church - the outdoor world he created - especially the oceans. I leave you with the thought I remember when I think of my father who passed.... on Easter the angel said ... Why look for the living among the dead ... Memories are the life that allows us to live forever! Fish on Duff, Fish on.

“ Shock and tears for my husband and I as we learned of Duffy's passing. We have watched Wicked Tuna and Wicked Tuna Outer Banks since the show's inception. NH transplants since moved to FL, the Pinwheel has been "Our Boat" and "Our Crew". Duff and Tyler made a great pair and their brotherhood and fishing expertise amazed us! We even bought ourselves matching "Pinwheel" shirts for Xmas last year! This was our team! We will always root for the Pinwheel, but it will never be the same.

Condolences to family and friends. RIP Duff, the strongest, most intelligent, and most enthusiastic First Mate ever!

I know Tyler (your BFF and Captain of the Pinwheel), will grieve your passing more than most. What a kick I would get watching you two catching those beautiful Bluefins all the while laughing joyfully like two little boys. May you ride the waves in Heaven and I know that the Angel's are waiting to give you your wings so you can "soar" over the clouds. You will be missed Duffy.*

“ Judy and Cody know I had a special bond with Nick. He was my savior and hero in the making of my horse farm in Eliot. Nick took over the fencing project with real professionalism and he was the best. My nephew Ben worked closely with Nick and said to me days later, Susie, we did a really good professional job on that fence of yours. He had been driving around and looked at other fences, realizing ours was by far the best!

Nick helped with all kinds of things on the farm, not the least driving my tractor and telling me how to turn the manure pile so it would compost. He mowed all my fields many many times...came to fix the fence and put up new posts...worked with those massive round bales that weighed 1,000 lbs...and saved my dear friend Linda from getting swallowed up by a couple of them. I am going to miss him terribly, knowing he is no longer here with us. A very kind and generous man. Took what he did on my farm so seriously...weedwacking was his thing! Rest in peace big heart,
Love Susan

“ I remember one time coming up North with myself and cam to come visit nick we took out the pontoon boat for the day we brought it back we had tempted to try and take it back out again that night and I had told nick watch out for that rock he goes I think I know the water's around here and sure enough we ran over that rock and remove the prop from the engine

Peter Twomey - July 23, 2018 at 05:00 AM

I was just thinking about this picture...I think this is the day I met Nick for the first time. From day one he treated me like we'd known each other forever just because I was important to you. Since that day he became my favorite of your friends and someone I came to be lucky enough to call a friend too. That smile will be missed ❤️

Heartfelt condolences to his family and friends. One of my and my husband's favorites. Unfortunately my husband passed the week before Duffy passed. I'm hoping they are having some great "tuna" conversations in heaven. Both way too young to pass. May both of you rest in peace.

“ Nick, You will forever be in my heart and missed every minute of every day. You brought so much love and fun into our family from the day you were born. I will never forget the day we were at the hospital maybe when Cody was born. Your dad said say bye to Aunt Sue and you smacked me across the face. Not the way to say bye but left me with a good laugh to this day. Love you so much. Sending you Hugs to Heaven. Aunt Suzie

“ FISHERMAN ANGLER'S PRAYER

*God grant that I may live to fish,
until my dying day,
And when it comes to my last cast,
I then most humbly pray,
When in the Lord's safe landing net,
I'm peacefully asleep,
That in his mercy I be judged,
As big enough to keep.*

“ I remember when he moved to Greenland... Immediately it was like he'd been there since kindergarten and watching him, slaw, and the rest of the guys Goofing around was the most entertaining thing! He was always upbeat and funny. Nick was just a huge light to anyone's life that knew him. His passing has been truly heartbreaking for everyone but we are all so thankful to have known such an amazing person.

“ Dear Judy, Little Ronnie, Cody, Big Ronnie and the whole Fudge Clan,

I was so sorry to learn of Nick's passing. He was far too young, but he lived life on his own terms with joy, love, laughter, kindness, and a full-tilt zest for the life he was given. I know he's now busy joking around with daddy (Bill) and Stevie in a special part of heaven for crazy Fudge men. We are away this week, but you are all in my heart and prayers during this sad time.

“ Ron , Nick ,Cody, Ashley and myself ( Kim) went to Sugarloaf. Stayed there a few days and one beautiful morning we went snowmobiling,even though my daughter was a young teen, she marveled at Nicks zest. I let her ride one herself, she followed the boys through the woods as fast as I'd let her LOL. Nick decided to go off trail, got stuck ,sled would not start! I was a little frustrated but not surprised! Another snowmobiler stopped and helped us, he got it started, we all screamed with excitement. Zoomed all the way back to the rental place unscathed. What a fun day.

“ I have a memory from a long time ago. We were invited to a party at Ronnie and Judy's in Topsfield and Joey Pugia was holding Nick and standing near the edge of the deck. He had on new loafers and slipped and he and Nick ended up over the deck and face first into the bark mulch below the deck. Nick had it in his eyes,nose, ears and mouth. We all laughed once we knew they were both ok. Nick had a zest for life and we will think of him that way for the rest of our lives. ❤️🏊♂️🏊♂️🏊♂️🏊♂️🏊♂️🏊♂️
