

Nicholas Trerotola Jr.

October 1, 1935 - April 18, 2024

Dover - Nicholas F. Trerotola Jr., beloved father, brother, and friend, passed away peacefully on April 18, 2024. He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and cherished memories.

Nick is survived by the love of his life, Patricia McCullagh. He was the adoring father of Anne Tribush and Jennifer Cote, whose lives he enriched with his wisdom and humor. In addition to his immediate family, Nick is survived by his brother, Laurence Trerotola, and his sisters, Mary Lu Carey and Virginia McCoy.

Professionally, Nick was a dedicated salesman for National Starch and Chemical. His colleagues and customers respected him for his ability to get things done.

Beyond his professional endeavors, Nick had a passion for cooking and entertaining. He delighted in preparing delicious meals for his loved ones and hosting gatherings filled with laughter and good times. His culinary creations were matched only by his warm hospitality and generous spirit.

Nick had a knack for storytelling and was known for his ability to tell a great joke. He had a unique gift for bringing people together and creating memorable moments that will be cherished by all who knew him.

Although Nick may no longer be with us in person, his spirit will live on in the hearts of those fortunate enough to know him. He will be deeply missed and fondly remembered.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to any charity of your choosing.
