

Olga (Tomicky) Tinios

August 31, 1930 - April 10, 2023

Hampton – Olga (Tomicky) Tinios, 92, of Hampton, passed away on Monday, April 10, 2023 surrounded by family.

Born on August 31, 1930, in Manchester to the late Michael and Anna Tomicky. Olga graduated from Central High School with the Class of 1948, where she met her future husband, Nick. Once married, they forged a life together that lasted 71 years.

In addition to her husband Nick, she is survived by their children, Joanna, Philip and Peter and his wife Lynne, as well as her grandson Michael. She was predeceased by her sisters, Mary Shaw and Catherine Belanger.

She will be deeply missed for her steadfast love and care for her family, her quick wit and unflappable honesty was well as her mean American Chop Suey.

Private services will be held for family.

“ Dear Nick and family, We were truly saddened to hear of Olga’s passing. When my dad married Kay 51 years ago I had no idea I was gaining a whole new side of a family. I am very blessed and grateful for all the memories we shared. The Tinios home was always a welcoming and warming experience. Nick you and your family or, No are in our hearts and prayers. Olga certainly made a difference in all of the lives she touched.. Love Jim and Brenda Warren and Family.
