“ I met Pat and Sonny in 1946 when we moved to Hampton. What a long time ago that was and what memories I have of the good times we shared.

Dear Lord, this is hard to write.

I remember Grandma Charlotte and Grandpa Kearns, Aunt Katie and Uncle Tommy, and of course their mom and dad, Margaret and Ralph. I never saw Pat's mom without a smile on her face and she made the most awesome pineapple upside down cake, ever.

The neighborhood kids were "Our Gang" New Hampshire style. Every day was a good day back then.

We roamed all over the woods behind Pat and Sonny's home and had great times.

I remember meeting up with Pat years after I left for the wider world; we picked up our conversation where we had left off decades before. Pat was like that, she never lost a friend and never wanted to.

I would like to pass along something a friend sent to me when I lost my son a few years ago.....

Hi Evelyn, I'm Heather. I am Katie and Tommy Clay's granddaughter. (Ronald's oldest) What you have written is beautiful. I never met Uncle Ralph he died before I was born, But i grew up with Aunt Margaret and your right there was never a day that she didn't have a smile on her face, or a giggle coming out of her mouth. I remember going to her and patty's house with gram almost every morning for there daily coffee and newspaper, playing cards, Patties black lab that she adopted if I remember right her name was Molly, she was hyper but just wanted to have fun and play with me and my sister. I remember the stories Patty use to tell us about places she had visited and wanted to go. When I got older and married my husband went back to night school to get his high school Diploma and Patty was not only his computer teacher she also tutored him. This was before we where married. They didn't even know that we would soon be related until they where both in the same church and I was walking down the isle.. Such a small world.... Patty will be missed. She was a wonderful person, great cousin, and anyone who new her was honored to of known her... Thank you again for you beautiful words... Heather<3
