Patricia Fontaine Chase (Little)

July 18, 1932 – January 13, 2026

Patricia Fontaine Chase (Little) passed away peacefully on January 13, 2026. She was born on July 18, 1932, in Florence, Alabama, and spent her childhood in both Florence and Memphis, Tennessee.

Patricia devoted her life to education, teaching history at junior and senior high schools in Memphis, Tennessee, and Portsmouth, New Hampshire. Her career took her abroad with the Air Force Dependents Schools, where she taught in England, Spain, and Japan. It was during her time overseas that she met her husband, Raymond G. Chase, who predeceased her.

Patricia is survived by her five nieces and nephews, who remember her with love and gratitude.
