

Patricia Staples

March 2, 1936 - July 8, 2022

Seabrook – Patricia (Dow) Staples, 86, of Seabrook, passed away on July 8, 2022 after a lengthy illness. She was born on March 2, 1936 in Amesbury, MA to the late James Dow and Jeannette (Gauthier) Blanchard.

Patricia was raised in Seabrook and was a 1954 graduate of Amesbury High School where she was a member of the National Honor Society. She worked as a receptionist for the Portsmouth Visiting Nurses throughout the 1970's and 80's as a receptionist. She then worked for Staples Mobile Home Park of Seabrook until her retirement.

Patricia and her late husband, George W. Staples, who predeceased her in December of 2018, had a passion for traveling. The couple enjoyed venturing to many places including Ball, South Korea, Panama, Hawaii, Alaska; and many countries in Europe such as Ireland, Germany and Austria. Patricia and George met in 1966 and married on June 28, 1980. They also enjoyed wintering in Englewood, FL.

She had many likes and hobbies, which included line dancing for over 30 years. She made many friends from this activity. She also enjoyed playing Dominoes, swimming in her pool, Seabrook Senior Center trips, trivia, geography, history (especially of the first ladies of the United States of America) and listening to country music.

Her greatest source of pride in her life was always her family. She leaves behind her daughters Doreen Bornstein and her husband Joel, Debra Locke and her husband Terry Sr., all of Seabrook, Delores Reedy and her husband Fred Jr. of Lake Wylie, SC, Shari Brown of Laconia and son Robert Eaton of South Berwick, ME, nine grandchildren: Lewis Eaton and wife Stacey of Hampstead, NH, Keith Eaton and wife Megan of Seabrook, Fred Reedy, III and wife Echo, Matthew Reedy and wife Jessica, all of Cumming, GA, Terry Locke, Jr., and wife Nicole of Andover, NH, Darren Locke of Seabrook, Patreece Lawrence and husband Kurt of Hampstead, NC, Tricia Brown and fiancé Ian Newhall of Rollinsford and Meaghan Eaton of Seabrook, 17 great grandchildren and brother Richard Blanchard of Englewood, FL.

Besides her husband of 38 years she was predeceased by her brother Robert Dow who passed away April 19, 2022 and her precious great granddaughter Ella Reedy.

The family would like to extend their most sincere thanks to Cornerstone of Hampton for their wonderful care of the matriarch of the family. Patricia was the type of person to be kind, compassionate, intelligent and quite social, craving new experiences and endeavors. She was regarded by all who knew her as always being funny, optimistic, forgiving, gentle and ambitious.

Visiting hours will be from 5-7 P.M. Thursday, July 14, 2022 at the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, 811 Lafayette Road, Hampton. Services will be held at 11 A.M. Friday, July 15, 2022 in the funeral home. Burial will follow in the Wildwood Cemetery, Seabrook. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited. The family welcomes condolences such as flowers but also encourages donations by clicking here to the Rockingham VNA Hospice (<https://www.exeterhospital.com/Rockingham-VNA-Hospice>).

“ My memories of Pattie go way back. Even though we were first cousins, we didn't stay in contact. I remember her as kind. Now I wish I had made more of an effort to stay in contact.

My love and prayers go to her great family.

“ From Mary and Bill Fullerton

I'm so thankful for the times we had together. Between the trips, cruises, times at camp, to just going out to eat. I enjoyed making all of the memories we created together and will carry them with me forever.

With sincere condolences to all of the family Mary and Bill Fullerton

“ All-time favorite memory of mine with you and grampa together, is our summer road trip to Princeton Maine. Grampa, you, Callie and I driving up to visit Mary and bill for a few weeks during summer vacation was indeed a trip to remember. All of us laughing, you kept saying "George don't fall asleep", " George wake up". Callie and I tapping the back of his seat to keep him from napping while driving and you giggling about it. I know that you and grandpa are showing off your square dancing talent in heaven, and playing chicken foot. May you rest easy in gramps arms.

My deepest heartfelt condolences to all of the family during this difficult time Michelle, Jimbo and family

“ Thinking back through the years of you and dad together and I'm thankful he had someone to enjoy being adventurous with. Seeing you both enjoy roller skating when I was young, Experiencing amazing trips around the world, to square dancing. Thank you for being his partner in everything. Sending our heartfelt condolences to your family at this difficult time

“ Pat always showed great kindness to my siblings and I while growing up and continued to be very sweet to my children and grandchildren. I have very fond memories of my stepmother and hope she and my dad are smiling down on all their children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and great greats.... Wishing her family comfort in their time of sorrow.

Aunt Pat had the most beautiful laugh and she was so full of life when she was traveling. Her trip to Korea and Hong Kong with us in the 80s was one trip I think back on and smile. George had his brand new video camera and could not aim it at anything correctly. It was a hoot! We had so many laughs and so much fun. She had such a great time with my mom and her brother Bob. My love goes out to all of you at this time. It is never easy but she is at peace.

Love,
