“ You were my hero when I was small. I remember Mom driving us up to Dans Star Market to pick you up and I always would say " I want to go in and tell him we're here!! I remember going in and finding you in the deli and I proudly told a man you worked with that were with that you were my dad. You were smiling ear to ear . Little memories keep popping up for me like this. You were a hard working man that loved his girls. We were lucky to have you💕
