

Paula L. Gray

September 24, 2024

Durham – Paula L. Gray, passed away peacefully on September 24th 2024 at Harmony Homes by the Bay, Assisted Living in Durham with her family at her side.

Paula was born in St. Johnsbury, VT to the late Paul and Charlotte Leonard. She graduated from St. Johnsbury Academy and attended Fisher College in Boston. Paula was an Executive Secretary at General Adjustment Bureau in St. Johnsbury where she met her husband Irving R. Gray of Hallowell, Maine.

Paula and Irv moved around some with Irv's job and retired to Hampton Falls, NH later moving to Hampton. Paula loved to travel with her husband and friends, they also spent 25 winters in St. Augustine, Florida where they made wonderful friends and were very active. She loved to go to the beach and ski at Sugarloaf & Burke Mt.

Paula was predeceased by her loving husband, her parents & her brother Paul M. Leonard, Jr.

Most of all Paula loved her family around her all of the time, and she had a great sense of humor. Paula was a devoted mother to her daughter Leslie Artigliere, son Steve Gray and wife Sally, son Jeff Gray and wife Robin, daughter Gary Sabata and husband Tom. Paula was a cherished grandmother to Stephanie Artigliere (Nate), Jerry Artigliere (Ashley), Steve Gray (Victoria), Christina Hill (Evan), Colby Flaherty (Kelsey), and Shannon Gray. She was a loving Great Grandmother to three children, to nieces and nephews and a Grand Nephew.

Paula will be laid to rest at High Street Cemetery in Hampton with a private ceremony. She will be greatly missed but as she always said "Love is Forever."
